OFFERTORY:

During the sessions of the summit, we will be receiving freewill offerings to help deflect cost and meet required need. We consider this as a vital part of worship to God and as an investment into the kingdom.

TICKETING/CONFIRMATION OF TRAVEL:

International delegates must possess confirmed return ticket, valid for 7 days or more, before traveling. Your ticket must cover the summit duration. As soon as your visa is granted and your ticket is ready and you are fully set to come, please inform the Winning in Life International office of your arrival detail so they can pick you up at the relevant stop or arrival point.

ARRIVALPOINT:

Please contact the Winning in Life Int'l office for confirmation of your last stop by flight or by bus or train so you can be advised and picked up.

Winning in Life International Ministries does not have any contingent funds for delegates who become stranded for any reason due to their lack of preparation and provision for their trip

FULL ATTENDANCE:

100% commitment, full attendance and participation is required from every delegate towards all ministry/teaching sessions, worship, prayers and activities, as we will not tolerate any misconduct during the sessions of the summit.

GODLYCONDUCT:

Godly conduct, moral excellence, loving relationship, good attitude and humility towards one another are expected throughout the summit. Asking for financial assistance from Winning in Life International or our guest speakers or other delegates is prohibited.

Winning in Life International Ministries is not liable for preaching engagements, but you can build relationships amongst the locals and make your plans if available.

Please prayerfully consider your coming and trust the Lord to make full provisions for you before you make any plans to attend. Remember, traveling is part of education and an added advantage.
